DENVER, July 10.-The Supreme court eday denied the petitions for rehearing in the cases of the Democratic county of ficials ousted by a recent decision of the court and modified its original order in the cases so as to allow judgment to issue from the Supreme court at once in all the cases. Later Balliff Watson, accompanied by the successful Republican contestants

All complied without protest with the exception of City and County Treasurer Edier, who declared he could not, in justice to his bondsmen, surrender his office and possession of the books and funds until an order was made by the Supreme court separating the city funds from the county funds, as he maintains that he is still City Treasurer.

Tomorrow contempt proceedings will be instituted against him for the purpose of securing a guiding order from the court.

CACHE VALLEY

Glad Row at A. C. is Settled.

Polygs and Peanut Politicians Thrown Out by McCornick.

Feeling That Widtsoe Is More Re sponsible for His Own Discomfiture Than Any One Else.

Special to The Tribune

LOGAN, Utah, July 16 .- Cache valley eccording to conversations heard since he meeting of the trustees of the Agricultural college Saturday, is immensely picased with the outcome of that sitting. The way President McCornick of the board of trustees took a lot of the peanut board of trustees took a lot of the peaning politicians and polygamists by the mape of the neck and, figuratively speaking, threw them in the Logan river, is extremely gratifying to those who are the true friends of the college.

Retirement of Widtsoe.

Retirement of Widtsoe.

There were a number who regretted that circumstances made it necessary to remove Dr. Widtsoe of the experiment station, but there is a general feeling that he is more responsible for his discomfiture than is any other, for he chose to line up with the insurgents, to listen to the advice of his mother-in-law and his friend. Prof. Merrill. Being in such company. It became necessary that he be branded with the same stick that President McCornick and Trustees Whitmore, Owen and McAllister were forced to use on Merrill.

The retention of President Kerr. The retention of President Kerr, according to reports from Cache valler, while not agreeable to all, is regarded as the best way out of the difficulty, and it is held by some that it was an act of wisdom on the part of the board to clear all obstacles from the way of President Kerr so that in the future, should there not be a success in the management of that institution, the responsibility may be placed squarely on Kerr's shoulders.

It Is Up to Kerr. Had either of the insurgents been retained it would have been impossible to say which was responsible did the college not come up to the expectation of the public and its friends. Now it is up to President Kerr and his friends, who compose the majority of the board of trustess, the people are saying, to lift the college into a sphere of greater usefulness and remove all features that have been so forcibly objected to in the past. There is a general helief that the lessons which have been learned, from the time that a legislative fight was made on the college down through its internal troubles, will be observed and prove profitable to the institution. That the college administration will give more attention to the agricultural studies and provide better facilities for the several agricultural departments is generally conceded.

Discomfiture of Politicians.

Discomfiture of Politicians.

The discomfiture of the politicians of the Howell-Cutler stripe, in being unable to make of that institution a part of the so-called Republican machine, is so manifest as to amuse those who stood without the influences of that machine. Early in the administration of John C Cutler the purpose was apparent that one of the records which Cutler's advisers hoped to make was to so administer the several educational, correctional, penal and eleemosynary institutions that they could be made parts of the Smoot-Cutler and eleemosynary institutions that they could be made parts of the Smoot-Cutler machine. This bold effort to overturn precedent and bring these institutions into politics has been resented by all citizens who are not beneficiaries in one sense or another of the machine. But of the many moves made in this direction none aroused such antagonism as aprang from the attempt of the machine politicians to prostitute the Agricultural college to their ends.

Papelle Are Rejecting People Are Rejoicing.

People Are Rejoicing.

Now the people are rejoicing that four strong-willed men, led by William S. Mc-Cornick, stood like stalwarts against this move and forced a miscarriage of those plans. It is also a subject of rejoicing that, for the time being at least, the polygamistic wing of the Mormon church of Cache valley falled in its effort to break down the college by making it an incubator of and a refuge for polygamists and those of polygamistic tendencies. That such a purpose was apparent, intelligent people of Cache valley did not deny. deny.
